John Bell Lerner Dies November 9 After Long Illness

Chairman of Board of Trustees Held Two Law Degrees From G. W. U.

John Bell Lerner, chairman of the Board of Trustees of George Washington University, died last Monday night, November 9, at his home here after a long illness. Mr. Lerner had been associated with the University for more than 50 years.

Funeral services were Thursday afternoon in the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church. In respect to the memory of Mr. Lerner, classes in the University were suspended that afternoon between the hours of 2:30 and 3:30. Honorary pallbearers included the President of the University and a number of members of the Board of Trustees.

Mr. Lerner was born in Washington in 1858 and lived here all his life. He graduated from George Washington University Law School in 1879 with the degree of bachelor of laws, while the degree of doctor of laws was conferred upon him by the University in 1904. In 1899, he was elected to the Board of Trustees, serving until his death.

Law School Laments Passing
John Bell Lerner was one of the most versatile of men. Not only was he an unusually successful banker and lawyer, but he was a guiding spirit in many corporations, intensely interested in education, a staunch churchman, and a writer on many different subjects.

In Washington educational interests Mr. Lerner rendered great service. He was a strong advocate of higher education, his cooperation with the faculty of the George Washington University toward advancing standards was always notable, and his enthusiastic efforts toward the establishing of a real college campus and the addition of new buildings were greatly appreciated.

The faculty of the Law School last Tuesday passed a resolution of bereavement upon the death of Mr. Lerner, "a patient and sympathetic friend, having the interests of the Law School of this University very close to his heart, so that in his passing we have sustained a severe loss."

Faculty Women's Reception Nov. 20

Mrs. Marvin and Mrs. Donaldson Head Receiving Line for New Members

Mrs. Cloyd Heck Marvin, honorary chairman of the Faculty Women of George Washington University, and Mrs. John Donaldson, chairman, will head the receiving line at the reception to be given Friday evening, November 20, at 8:30, at the Hay-Adams House to welcome faculty women who are new to the University this fall. Others who will be in the receiving line are Mrs. Earl W. Barnhart, chairman of the Newcomers Group, and Mrs. Robert H. Harmon, wife of Dr. Harmon, leader of the George Washington University Glee Club.

Mrs. W. Hayes Yeager, vice chairman of Faculty Women, and Mrs. George B. Ross, chairman of the entertainment committee, will preside at the punch bowl, assisted by officers and committee chairmen.

One of the features of the evening will be selections to be presented by the Glee Club.

Husbands of newcomers and their guests are invited to attend Friday's reception. Mrs. Donaldson cordially invites all women members of the faculty and all wives of professors and instructors, both full and part time, or their official hostesses to affiliate with the Faculty Women.

Jacobs, Hill Elected Y. W. C. A. Officers

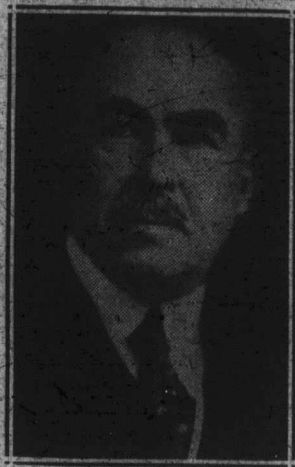

Organization Given Room in Lambie House for Toy Shop

Betty Jacobs was elected president and Jane Hill, respected vice president of the Y. W. C. A., at the regular meeting last Thursday.

It was announced that Mrs. Barrows had given the "Y" a room on the top floor of the Lambie House, which will be used as the G. W. branch of the Toy Shop.

Old toys will be painted in the shop, and dresses for dolls will also be made there. All members promised to bring old toys, which will be fixed up and taken to the "Y" and distributed to the poor children on Christmas.

Law School Host To 400 At Mixer

Record Crowd Attends Annual Affair; Marvin, Van Vleck
Guests

About 400 students and alumni attended the Law School mixer last Friday night, the largest crowd ever entertained at this annual affair. An unusually large number of first year students were present.

President and Mrs. Marvin, Dean and Mrs. Van Vleck, and other members of the faculty and their wives received the students. Dancing to music furnished by Sydney's Orchestra continued all evening.

The hall was effectively decorated with flowers and streamers. A buffet table was opened on a table, where served as refreshments.

A committee from each class, together with the faculty committee, were responsible for the planning of the affair. The first year class committee was composed of James W. Fullbright, Grace White, Mary Crow, Charles Smoot, John Black, Gordon C. Biddle, Stanley Miller, Myron A. Anderson, A. Kramer, and Mrs. Beattie Eichler. Members of the second year committee were H. Cockrill, Mark H. Rathburn, Julian Dell, Glen Hardy, Abraham Bok, Josiah Lyman, John Hoffman, Elizabeth Dickson, Charles C. Remsen, Jr., and Yardley Chittick.

Those of the third class were Theodore Rinehart, John A. Blair, John Jackson, Stuart Barnes, Richard Dyer, John Cady, Truman Young, A. W. Perry, Marguerite Rawalt, Katherine Grubb, Mrs. Catherine Hoffman, Mildred Gott, Louise Feinstein, Donald Dudley.

The faculty committee on student affairs is Gilbert Hall, chairman; Clarence A. Miller, James F. Davison, James O. Murdock, and Helen Newman, secretary of the school.

Tryouts For Men's Debate Team Called

Roberts Urges Those Interested To Apply; Experience Unessential

The next meeting of the men interested in debating will be November 17, at 1:10 p. m., in Building Q-11. Previous experience is unnecessary.

At the meeting last week, Professor Roberts announced that the topic of debates this year would be "Resolved, That the Federal Government should provide for a system of cooperative control of industry to supplant our present system." The George Washington University squad will debate on both sides of the topic.

Debates this year will be held with North Carolina State, Duke University, Boston University, University of Florida, and possibly the University of Porto Rico.

Library Science Students Keep Book Week Tradition

Book Week will be observed this week by students in the Division of Library Science in accord with the tradition of devoting a week each year to emphasizing the importance of the choice of good books. Room 29 of Building J will be decorated with posters and books dealing with the precedents of Book Week.

In several classes general discussions will be held. The first will be on the "Subject of the Book," the second on "How to Induce Children to Read Good Books," and the last on the John Newbery prize for the best book for children. Last year this prize was won by Elizabeth Costworth's story, "The Cat Who Went to Heaven."

Westbrook Stars As Club Presents "Queen's Husband"

Green and Danzansky Also
Score in Praiseworthy
Production

By BETTY COON
Fitting himself perfectly into the role of the hen-pecked ruler of a mythical kingdom, Frank Westbrook easily stole the spotlight in the Drama Club's first presentation of the year, "The Queen's Husband." Westbrook gave a superlative interpretation of the timid "Yes'm'dear" king. His cheeky game with Phipps, the butler, gave rise to the most intense moment of the play.

Second honors went, undisputed, to Ada Green, star of past Troubadour performances, as the dominating Queen Marthas, while Joseph Danzansky, another Troubadour star, rollicked throughout the production in the amusing role of Phipps, the head butler.

Leonard Stevens proved a masterful villain with a very convincing sneer. The prime minister, played by Michael Greenberg, was terrifying enough, but Greenberg failed to hit his stride and appeared lacking at times.

The handsome hero, Karl Gay, was a trifle stiff. Edward Northrup, Steve Nyman, Hartwell Parker and Sol Orleans gave very good interpretations in minor roles, although too little was seen of Orleans.

The monotony of the single set used in the play was relieved by the addition of Amanda Chittum and the ladies-in-waiting to the queen with their attractive dresses and timely appearance.

The entire performance was a credit to the Drama Club, moving with a rapidity and clarity which made it an extremely entertaining production.

Pi Phi And Kappa Win Booth Prizes

Receiving Title to Halverson; 300
Attend County Fair

Over 300 people attended the Y. W. C. A. county fair in Corcoran Hall last Wednesday evening. Feminine salesmanship reached its peak as the campus sororities offered a variety of wares ranging from fortunes to phonograph records. Jerry Free's band furnished music for dancing.

Pi Beta Phi won first place in the contest for the most popular booth, which was determined by the number of votes sold. Zeta Tau Alpha and Kappa Kappa Gamma finished second and third, respectively.

Kappa Kappa Gamma had the most attractive booth, with Pi Beta Phi and Sigma Kappa tied for second place, according to the decision of the committee of judges, consisting of Professors Ragatz, Owens, Delbert, and Kayser.

Alfred Halverson displayed a consuming interest to annex the campus pie eating title from four other contestants.

Christine Spignul, Janey Allen, and Sock Kennedy entertained with a few dancing skits from the Troubadours new show, "Happy Landings."

German Club Entertained By Program of Readings

Miss Rogers entertained the German Club last week with readings from the humorous adventures of "Tobias Knott" and George Mutziger rendered a few selections at the piano. Songs were sung by the members and light refreshments were served following which the meeting was concluded.

Doyle Posts New Student Advisers Consulting Hours

Students Must Consult Various Professors Before
December 1

Sometime last week each Junior College student received a letter indicating his faculty adviser. Students are required by University regulations to consult with their advisers, but Dean Henry Gratton Doyle says, "A friendly, helpful approach to the student's problems is vital if results are to be attained, and it is this spirit, rather than that of perfunctory fulfillment of requirements, that we wish to cultivate both on the part of the student and of his adviser."

The first consultation is due before December 1. The advisers and their office hours follow:

Ruth Harriet Atwell, associate professor of Physical Education, R-10, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, 10 to 11; Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 1 to 1:15; Friday, 1 to 2, and by appointment.

Professor Bement
Douglas Bement, assistant professor of English, L-32, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, 11 to 12:30, and 4:30 to 5, and Monday, Wednesday and Friday by previous appointment.

Paul William Bowman, assistant professor of Botany, H-32, Tuesday and Thursday, 10 to 11, and 2 to 3, and Wednesday and Friday, 3 to 4, and by appointment.

Walter Lynn Cheney, professor of Physics, J-22, Monday, 4:30 to 5:30;

Newman Club Will Hold Annual Bridge

Mary Mattingly Heads Committee
Named to Arrange Party

The annual fall card party given by the Newman Club will be held November 19, at 8 p. m., at the Roosevelt Hotel. Mary Mattingly having been appointed chairman of the committee making arrangements. Tickets may be obtained upon application from Leonard Ebel, 1433 Fairmont St. N. W., phone Col. 0809.

At the business session Lawrence Gage was elected to represent the Newman Club at the forthcoming fall conference of the Middle Atlantic States Province of the National Federation of College Catholic Clubs to be held in Philadelphia on November 20, 21, and 22, at Temple University. Plans are being made to accommodate any number of the members of the Newman Club of G. W. who may desire to attend and all interested are requested to call Mary Kerwin, phone North 7981, Apt. 316, with regard to reservations and travel arrangements.

Poetry Group Discusses Work of Emily Dickinson

The Modern Poetry Club met last Wednesday in Corcoran Hall. A program on Emily Dickinson followed the business meeting. A resume of Emily Dickinson's life was given by Jean Kirkwood, and some of her poems were read by Monta Ruediger, president of the club. A short discussion followed.

The club meets every Wednesday at 12:30 in Corcoran Hall 15. All students interested in poetry are invited to attend.

Seats for Charity Game Now on Sale at Stadium

The seat sale for the charity football game here, December 12, in which the University of Alabama, 1930 Rose Bowl team, will meet the varsities of George Washington, Georgetown, and Catholic Universities, was started last Saturday, officials of the game committee recently announced.

Until December 1, when prices of each seat will be advanced 50 cents, grand stand seats will sell for $1, reserved seats for $1.50, and box seats for $2. Reservations placed this week even before the seats were on sale, exceeded the early demand for any other game here this season.

For the convenience of students in George Washington University, special representatives of the committee in charge of arrangements will be in the registrar's office, 2029 G Street, during Tuesday and Wednesday of this week to sell tickets in the student section. Tickets in this section are $1 if bought before December 1, and will be sold only on presentation of a student activity book. After Wednesday, these special tickets may be procured at Spaldings.

Delphi, New Honor Society, Approved

Sororities Have Two Representatives in Organization
Formed Last April

Delphi, honorary inter-sorority society, organized on this campus last April, was approved by the Committee on Student Life, October 29. This organization has been created in an effort to better Panhellenic spirit. Dorothy Worrall Douglas, conceived the idea of forming the society, and it is due largely to her efforts that Delphi is now recognized by the University as an approved student organization.

Membership will consist of two representatives from each social sorority in the Panhellenic Council, provided that members are especially active in their respective sororities, and participate in extra-curricular activities. To be eligible a woman must have completed 60 credit hours, and have been resident one year in this university.

Officers for the year are: President, Dorothy Worrall Douglas; vice president, Marion Zeigler; secretary, Eleanor Spencer, and treasurer, Kitty Blake. The charter members were Ruth Griggs and Elizabeth Rees, Alpha Delta Phi; Gladys Wright, Alpha Delta Theta; Althea Lawton and Margaret Hicks, Delta Theta; Anna Bonnier and Virginia Sheffield, Kappa Delta; Margaret Selvig and Eleanor Spencer, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Mary Warrington and Mary Fleming, Phi Delta; Kitty Blake and Anna Laura Sanford, Phi Mu; Mary Hudson and Wilhelm Gude, Pi Beta Phi; Marion Zeigler and Roberta Wright, Sigma Kappa; Carolyn Brasch and Dorothy Schenken, Chi Omega; and Dorothy Douglas and Olivia Watkins, Zeta Tau Alpha.

New members were elected last night to fill the vacancies left by students who graduated in June. Although the social committee is arranging a dance in the near future.

Heimbürger Leads Civil Engineer Ball

Cole, Weiss, McQueen Elected Officers
at A. S. C. E.'s First Meeting

Ray A. Heimbürger was appointed chairman of the First Annual Engineers' Ball last Wednesday night at the first meeting of the American Society of Civil Engineers. The ball will be held in the near future in conjunction with the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

Three officers were elected at the same meeting. They are H. S. Cole, assistant secretary; W. H. Weiss, assistant treasurer; and J. M. McQueen, contact committeeman. A. H. James spoke on "Transportation in Colombia," and illustrated his lecture with slides showing the precipitous terrain of the Andes over which he built several roads. Mr. James is well known throughout the United States and South America for the work he did in Colombia two years ago.

Another meeting of the A. S. C. E. will be held December 6 in K-12 at 8:15 p. m.

Pep Rally, Stag Dance Given For Benefit Of Band

Green Dragons Sponsor Affair;
Organization Well Supported By School

A pep rally, featured by school songs by the University Band, will be sponsored by the Green Dragons in Corcoran Hall Thursday night at 8. Following the rally, a stag dance for the benefit of the band will be held. Admission will be 50 cents for men and 25 cents for women.

The appearance of the band for the Thanksgiving Day game is definitely assured. Although this is strictly an all-student movement, President Marvin has added his personal support, as well as that of the administration. The Alumni Association and the Board of Trustees are also strongly behind the organization. Various organizations in the University have contributed to the fund for the benefit of the band, Pi Beta being one of the first, closely followed by Sigma Kappa. President Marvin has also added his financial support, as have numerous individual students, who have transferred to the band the money they originally pledged to the Student Union Building fund. Every member of the University is given an opportunity to support this important activity.

Men expecting to play in the band and take part in its appearances in the near future must report no later than this week.

The uniforms in which the band will appear at the game will be the most elaborate in this section of the country. They will consist of Colonial blue double-breasted overcoats, reaching almost to the ground, wide buff leather belts, and a special reversible cape, blue lined with buff. The hats will be high blue shakos with blue veils and trimmings and buff pompoms.

Columbian Women Plan Bridge Party

Purpose Is to Raise Fund to Purchase Replica of Houdon Statue

Columbia Women of George Washington University will give a bridge party on the afternoon of Saturday, November 21, at the Kennedy-Warren.

The function is for the purpose of raising funds to assist the University in the purchase of a replica of the famous Houdon statue of George Washington, and is an activity which Columbian Women have undertaken in recognition of the Bicentennial year.

Among those who have taken tables are Mrs. Cloyd Heck Marvin, Mrs. William J. Mallory, Mrs. Joshua Evans, Jr., Mrs. Henry Alvah Strong, Mrs. Douglas Putnam Birnie, Mrs. Abram Linsner, Mrs. Clarence Aspinwall, Mrs. Charles Herries Woodhull, Mrs. Alfred Adams Wheat, Mrs. Gilbert Grosvenor, Mrs. Charles Riborgman, Mrs. Merle Thorpe, Mrs. Charles Edward Munroe, Mrs. Howard Lincoln Hodgkins, Mrs. William Carl Ruediger, Mrs. Philip Sidney Smith, Mrs. Owen B. French, Mrs. Russell McNitt, Miss Ana Pearl Cooper, Mrs. Katherine Bovee, Miss Janet McWilliam, Miss Lucille Wilkinson, Mrs. William S. Washburn, and Mrs. Bernard J. Jarman.

Miss Janet McWilliam is chairman of the special Statue Committee which is arranging the bridge benefit.

Miss Elizabeth Peet, Dean of Women at Gallaudet College, and a woman who is known throughout the country for her work in the education of the deaf, is chairman of the Committee on Patronesses for the benefit.

Club Commemorates Birthday Of Luther

Discussion Groups Sponsored by Luther Club Meet Sundays

The Luther Club held its second meeting last Tuesday, in the Luther Place Memorial Church. There was a special program commemorating the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther.

Dr. H. Denington Hayes, speaker for the evening, spoke on "Luther, the Educator." During his talk Dr. Hayes brought out the fact that Luther was one of the few great men in history, great movements for freedom, namely, religious, civic, and educational.

At the conclusion of Dr. Hayes' talk a business meeting was held. Edward Steveling and Marian Fowler were elected vice president and recording secretary, respectively, to fill vacancies.

The Advisory System in the Junior College

A forward step in the establishment of a satisfactory relationship between individual students in the Junior College and the faculty of the University has been taken in the setting up of the Junior College Advisory System.

It has been determined that most of the solvable difficulties encountered by college students are those of orienting themselves in their new surroundings and in learning how to most efficiently direct their efforts and energies toward the attainment of their objective, a training of mind and body which will enable them to live happily and successfully in a highly competitive world.

Small colleges throughout the United States claim special advantages for their students in that with their smaller enrollments much more personal attention by faculty members can be given to the solution of the manifold problems which are presented to freshman and sophomore students for solution.

Some large institutions have tried to solve the personal problems of their students by giving orientation lessons; others by giving special attention to those students who have gotten into scholastic difficulties. Neither method has been outstandingly successful in lowering the incidence of failures of students during their first two years of college work which is the time when most preventable failures occur. The Junior College Advisory System has been devised as an effective method of establishing cordial and mutually helpful relations between the students and members of the faculty with a view of eliminating all of the preventable difficulties which operate to deter the student from reaching his or her education objective.

On November 14 Henry Grattan Doyle, dean of the Junior College, sent letters describing the advisory system to all Junior College students. Letters were also addressed to the parents and guardians of these students and their cooperation with the faculty advisors was requested.

The next move must be made by individual students calling upon their respective advisors, by appointment if necessary, to discuss their personal difficulties and problems. These conferences between student and advisor are not going to be merely a perfunctory fulfillment of the University regulations. Initially they will be for the purpose of students and advisors acquainting themselves with each other and for the discussion of present problems, but the important objective of the advisory system will not be realized until all students accustom themselves to immediately consulting their advisor whenever they have problems for which they see no obvious solution.

When such cooperation between student and advisor shall have been obtained, then it can truly be said that a "master-fellow" relationship has been established and the Junior College will be recognized as a most essential unit in the University, and not just a two-year grind to reach the portals of the senior unit, Columbian College, or the professional schools.

Athletic Office Sponsors

Intramural Court League

The Athletic Department of The George Washington University is for the first time sponsoring an Intramural Basketball League. The league will consist of six teams, Columbian, Engineers, Pharmacy, Pre-Medical, Junior College Freshmen, Junior College and Sophomores.

Play will probably start next week in order to decide the intramural winner before the regular varsity and freshman practice begins. All men who have not received varsity or freshman awards are eligible to participate.

The league is to be conducted on the elimination basis, each team playing two or more games. Applications for managers of the teams must be filed by Thursday, November 19, in the gym office. Applicants must be enrolled in the school whose team they wish to manage.

Radio Club Elects Channel

Chairman at First Meeting

After being closed to new members for over a year, the George Washington Radio Club opened its doors to all interested enthusiasts at its first meeting last Wednesday night. New officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Jessie F. Channel, chairman; Elliott Murphy, secretary; and Leslie Haynes, press representative.

The club announced that its station, W3ACY, will operate again this year under the supervision of Chief Operator Howard Cole. Dr. Hiram Colver McNeil, founder of the club, was tendered a vote of appreciation.

CHIPS

Dear Readers: After my serious illness of last week (flowers now being received in The Hatchet office; no brickbats or bombs allowed) I return to the scene of the conflict and find that this publicity rag of ours unaccountably got along without the services of Dicky. We will appreciate all suggestions for increasing our popularity, so stick with Rollo 'til we move to a new school. Then we'll have a son and call him Junior.

Originality is the spice of life! These Green Dragons have thought of something different this time! Girls you'll have entire control of the popularity market. Just shell out two bits and you can be stormed and whirled to death by the four-bit stags gathered for the males. Dates will not be in order, but Sub Rosa will have plenty of them. Don't get your toes stepped on, all you staidies!!!

Previous to the dance we'll have an old fashioned down and out pep rally. And we want just as many out there as can crawl into Martha Washington's rose bed. There isn't any roof to raise, but we sure would like to make those Georgetown coltish boys prick up their ears as a sample of what they'll hear on December 12.

These guys over in the law school know how to throw a brawl, too. The room was rather crowded, true to the conditions of a good dance, and we had a draw fine time, lads. My goodness, when those serious minded gentlemen get going there's no stopping the rush, and gentleman is too gentle a term.

We'd like to see more of these dances around the school. Of course we realize the young gals would look rather incongruous with one of these here hydraulic pumps in the engineering laboratories, but perhaps they could borrow a hall somewhere. Come on, some of you peppery leaders get busy! The swimming team has already come forward backing our idea—they have their own orchestra, with the exception of a piano player—some distance plunger please note—and the team is getting along swimmingly, thank you.

Our Drama Club put over a bang up performance at Wardman Park Theatre. We enjoyed every minute of the well-acted slapstick. Things like that help the school along—and school support is a thing such a play just can't do without—appreciation means better efforts. We hand the Drama Club a big yell for a swell production!

The annual fraternity football-basketball fights get under way tonight. Give them plenty of room folks, they're wild and woolly and all's fair that the referee doesn't see.

Rollo just can't understand why our six bucks didn't come back to us, as per schedule. However all's well that ends well. Transfer to a worthy cause is just fine. We can claim one brass button on a monkey jacket, or a bum note from the new French horn. Oh, my—we wonder what Georgetown and C. U. will think when we blast Alabama off the gridiron before the football team gets a chance at 'em.

According to a local paper our new born managerial system has done a complete flop and is now turning over in its grave. Rollo has been caught unawares and knows nothing about it—if asked. What we think about it is another thing. It isn't nice to know our best means of getting trips with the teams has been given the boot—and what's more we think the newspaper is wrong, sadly wrong. Big Jim just can't be as mean as all that.

The only thing we don't like about this new Hatchet office layout on Aitch Street is that we can't wash our hands without some inconvenience. In the other hangout all we had to do was wait for a rainy night and mark the spots where the roof leaked.

Dear old dangerous Dan Beattie insists upon beating my ears with copy for the Troubadours. I must admit, folks, that despite my dislike for Dan's treatment of my person, his songs have that dangerous soothing quality we just can't resist. That's why we call him "Dangerous." Oh, well, the Troubadour's "Happy Landings," are not so far away, and tomatoes are getting past ripe.

Isn't it just too funny these people with the activity plums can get so close to the danger line and keep from going over.

We've always wondered why our girls didn't break in on this Gate and Key racket—now they have—Delphi for Delphinians is their motto. However, we hear that both organizations are really coming through in a social way this year so we're for 'em.

See you at the Pep Rally and at the game—don't fail me.

The George Washington Colonials will take on the Butler Bulldogs under the arc lights at Griffith Stadium Friday night in the last night game of the season. The Butler eleven has been steadily increasing in strength since the beginning of the season, so that they will present their full power in the game Friday. The Bulldogs come here with a none too impressive record of three wins and as many losses. The Colonials have taken four teams into camp and have lost but two games so far this season.

Butler dropped the first two games of its schedule to Franklin and the University of Ohio by scores of 7-6 and 40-0. The next two tilts went in favor of the Hoosiers when they trampled the Ball State Teachers, 34-0, and ran

Parent-Teacher Course Interesting to Students

The interesting and practical Parent-Teacher course under the direction of Mrs. Florence C. Watkins is now studying problems brought in from associations throughout the city. Members of the class are parents, teachers, and others interested in the promotion of child welfare, every one of whom is taking an active part in the life of the class. Mrs. J. N. Saunders, president of the D. C. Congress of Parents and Teachers, addressed the class last week on the subject of the local organization.

In scoring a 61-6 victory. Although the latter two teams were not of high caliber, the Bulldogs' offense was greatly strengthened in these contests. The next game with the University of Dayton, a much stronger eleven, was dropped to them. The Bulldogs came back with a victory over one of their keenest rivals the next week with a 12-8 decision over Wabash.

The Hoosiers are led by two fast and shifty backs, Captain Booz and Nelson Habler. The former is a triple threat man who has shown himself to be shining star of his team. Habler has been mainly instrumental in gaining ground for the Bulldogs and doing much of their scoring. Mechum, at right tackle, is perhaps the best lineman the visitors will present.

Coach Pixlee has announced a changed backfield for this game. Carlin, who shown so brilliantly in the Salem contest, will be calling signals for the Colonials. Carter, at fullback, is expected to show more of that fine plunging he so ably demonstrated in his last two games. Fenlon and Parrish, at the half positions, have been playing right along and all know of their sterling qualities at passing, plunging, and running interference for their team mates. The line has been changed to strengthen as much as possible for this encounter and to get it in shape for the Thanksgiving game with the Nodaks of North Dakota University.

Sterling Varsity Linesmen

Playing side by side in nearly every game and presenting a stalwart and well high impenetrable spot in the Colonials' forward wall, Dike and Slaird at right guard and right tackle are among the best linesmen to be found in this section. Slaird is often seen breaking through the line and spilling men behind the lines or blocking opponents' punts. Dike with his 195 pounds of brain and brawn holds that line when opponents are threatening to make ground. After one or two tries at this spot the opposing team relinquishes and endeavors to push through a more penetrable point.

Sigma Nu's Annex Interfrat Golf Cup

Defeat Sigma Chi, 2 to 1, in Final Round; Swindells and Stearns Star

Sigma Nu continued its championship march for interfraternity honors by handily winning the golf tourney from the Sigma Chi team two to one. This makes the second championship Sigma Nu has garnered this year.

Sigma Nu's first foursome of Swindells and Stearns proved the class of the tourney by trouncing Sigma Chi's outfit of Atherton and Brown, nine up, for the first point. Both Swindells and Stearns started slowly, but soon got down to business and pilled up enough points to coast to victory with a twenty-five stroke lead. Atherton shot the best golf for the Sigma Chi team in this foursome.

Sigma Chi's second foursome, Orblison and Klutz, came back to take its match from Nelson and Bealer, two up. The Sigma Nu's were three down at the turn but managed to reduce this margin to two down at the end of the match. Orblison and Klutz were two up in the matter of strokes on Nelson and Bealer but Sigma Nu's lead in the first foursome was enough to give them the deciding point for low aggregate score. Orblison's eighty-three was the best ball shot in this match and was instrumental in winning this tilt for Sigma Chi.

The golf played by the fraternity teams in the tourney this year was about as good as any in previous seasons. Several fraternities which in the past were not possessors of good teams are now putting forth better teams than ever before.

Individual scores were:

Sigma Nu	Sigma Chi
Swindells 77	Atherton 84
Stearns 80	Brown 88
Totals 157	Totals 172
Nelson 88	Klutz 82
Bealer 85	Orblison 83
Totals 173	Totals 175

Gym Classes Chosen According to Ratings

Men Ranking High Attend One Class and Swim at Ambassador Pool

Under the direction of Coach Jean Sexton all classes in gym are now in full swing. Following the medical and physical examinations given last month to approximately 250 students, the rankings have been posted and those men in the highest quarter of the class who wish to take swimming are now doing so at the Ambassador pool under the tutelage of Major Dyer.

When the results of the tests were compiled, the gym instructors gained a fair idea of just which men need extra work in the gym and which need come only half-time. The 20 students with the highest averages will come to gym only once a week and their exercise will be more in the form of games. The 20 students with the lowest averages will have gym classes three times a week and their work will be more in the form of corrective exercises.

The average of the class each event was: 230-yard run, 40.22 seconds; standing broad jump, 78.75 inches; basket ball speed test, 28.98 times in 30 seconds; chin, 7.71 times; medicine ball throw, 28.54 feet.

High ten in the school were: H. Clews, 9.114; C. M. Trammell, 7.683; E. Florence, 7.145; J. P. Kerr, 6.645; L. Ross, 6.321; C. Hunt, 5.907; E. Northrup, 5.885; E. F. Hay, 5.542; F. Backus, 5.397; M. Beacher, 5.342.

Dr. I. E. Young, head of the department of Psychology at the University of Nevada, states that the existence of the mathematical mind, the constructive or engineering mind, the mechanical mind, the linguistic mind, and the literary mind is the reason that no one should remain in an occupation for which he does not feel fitted, or which he does not like.

Freshmen Defeat Emerson Gridmen

Game Concludes Successful Season; Three Wins, Two Defeats Recorded

Eight touchdowns and four extra points gave the freshmen their third grid victory of the season Wednesday at Eastern High Stadium. The Colonial backs ran wild through Emerson Institute to score in every period and amass a total of 58 points to the preppers 13.

Trilling, freshman quarterback and former Emerson star, had a field day, pushing three touchdowns over the last white line and scoring a pair of extra points.

George Washington held the center of the stage most of the fray and all but one touchdown were the result of well executed football. The only unearned counter came near the end of the first half when Emerson fumbled and the ball went to the frosh on the 20-yard line from where it was an easy matter to score.

Emerson Scores on Passes

Emerson twice took the situation in hand for brief moments and when they did the Buff and Blue failed to stop them short of touchdowns. Raum was the outstanding back for the Emerson outfit, his passing with Whelen and Buscher on the receiving end, driving his team into scoring territory in both the second and last quarters. One of these long passes was received over the goal line by Whelen in the second period for the first Emerson score and another brought the ball to the one-yard line in the final quarter from where Whelen plunged over.

Nelson and Strayer each scored a pair of touchdowns, and Knott made the final score with but a few minutes to play in the last half. Kresky brought joy to Coach Jean Sexton's heart when he was called back from his position at right tackle to drop kick successfully a point after touchdown.

Win 3 of 5 Contests

This victory over Emerson Institute completes the frosh schedule of five games. The Cubs won their first game easily, beating Altoona Apprentice School, 45 to 0. In their second fray the Western Maryland freshmen were too strong, running up a score of 31 points against the yearlings' 12. The G. W. U. varsity likewise proved too powerful for their younger playing mates, whipping them by a 33-0 count.

However, the Colonial frosh wound up their season with two victories. St. Johns' youngsters fell before the G. W. onslaught, 32 to 0, and Emerson

Rhapsodies In Black Take Soccer Title

Triumph Over Three Other Teams
From Women's Soccer Classes

The Rhapsodies in Black eclipsed the Ballyhoos for a 30-0 victory at the Ellipse Friday afternoon, to win the title of Intramural Champions in Women's Soccer.

The Rhapsodies in Black, captained by Hilda Hayes, were winners of the Monday and Friday section and the Ballyhoos, headed by Janet Young, had won out over the teams of the Tuesday and Thursday section.

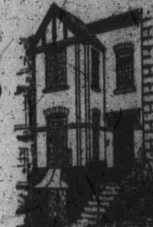

The past week has been the scene of much activity in women's sports. The classes in soccer meeting on Monday and Friday were divided up into four teams: The Squabblers, the Gold Sockers, the Rhapsodies in Black, and the Hyenas. From the Tuesday and Thursday groups were also selected four teams: The Greenbriars, the Ballyhoos, the Bearcats, and the Whip-pas.

was the final victim. Winning three of five games, the freshmen's football season may be characterized as reasonably successful and rather above par.

Trilling, Vandenburg and Knott were the cream of the ball carriers while their fellow backs, Strayer, Biesada, and Nelson were not far behind them in ability. On the forward wall Raskowski was a tower of strength in the center position and his mates, Kresky, Christensen and Lacilla played consistently fine games in the flank positions.

WHO'S WHO ON THE CAMPUS

DANIEL C. BEATTIE

Dan Beattie has been identified with Troubadours ever since its formal organization as a producing company for musical comedies in 1927. He is one of the charter members, was assistant musical director in 1929-30, musical director in 1930-31, and is both managing director and musical director this year.

Beattie is also a charter member of the local chapter of Alpha Eta Epsilon, national dramatic fraternity, organized locally in 1931, and is serving as its president this year.

He has been a member of the George Washington University Glee Club for three years, singing with it when it won the intercollegiate national championship in 1930.

We are still singing the hits he composed for recent Troubadours shows. Do you remember "What Care I" from "Sometime Soon" in 1928; "Just A Kiss," "Must I Forget," and "I Always Get My Man" from "Gypsy in Egypt"; and "Makin' Love" and "How Do You Get That Way" from "Good Gracious Godfrey"? Dan wrote them. You'll hear more in "Happy Landings."

Furthermore, his repertoire of musical instruments includes piano, banjo, and accordion, and Dan has been a regular participant in the Troubadours programs over WOL every Monday at 7:30.

Beattie is a member of Theta Delta Chi fraternity, and is the composer of "The Sweetheart of Theta Delta Chi," featured by Will Osborne and his orchestra.

Members to See Painting Collection of Mrs. Garrell Next Week

To enable students to make contacts with the opportunities Washington offers in various art lore, is the purpose of the organization of an art appreciation group on Friday, November 6, at the Lambie House. The club is supervised by Miss Harriet Garrells, superintendent of art in the public schools, and Mrs. Caroline Benedict Carroll, lecturer on Archeology in the University.

The next meeting will take place Friday, December 4, at Miss Garrell's home in order to view her private collection of paintings. Election of officers and a discussion of the paintings and other objects of art will take place. Everyone interested in joining is invited to see Mrs. Barrows in her office and receive further information concerning the organization.

Chamberlain Design Wins Second Place

Marks Fourth Year George Washington Entries Have Won Prizes

Beaux-Arts Institute of Design recently announced the awards in the annual program competition. Miss Muriel R. Chamberlain, representing George Washington University, was awarded the second prize of $10. The subject of the ball this year was "A Pageant of Old New York."

Other entries from George Washington were made by Betsy Garrett, Miriam Moss, Virginia Parton and Ben T. Simmons. The Fine Arts Department has placed in this competition in four consecutive years. In 1929 Donald Kline, now an instructor in the Art School, won first prize of $100, in the following year Mr. Kline won second prize, and last year Ben Simmons was awarded second place.

While all this was happening in New York City a competition has been in progress within G. W. walls. The monthly Fine Arts judgment was made last Saturday. This included all work in the Department, illustration, antique, water color and sketching.

The traveling exhibit for the Scarab chapters has been arranged, and will start on its journey this week. The exhibit has been made up by members of the fraternity under the direction of Professor Crandall. Judgment will be rendered within the next few weeks.

Marvin Announces Change In Faculty Of Medical School

Changes Made as Initial Step in Development of Greater Medical School

The appointment of a new medical faculty on November 6 marked the first step in the reorganization of the George Washington University School of Medicine which, it is expected, will result in the establishment in Washington of a leading medical center. Announcement of the initial moves toward the University's greater development in the medical field was made by President Cloyd Heck Marvin following the November meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The new faculty is created within the present teaching staff of the school and is composed of the president of the University, the dean and emeritus professors of the School of Medicine, and the heads of the teaching and research departments. This faculty will formulate the academic policies of the school, and the plans for the development of its various branches of teaching and research. It also will carry the responsibility of appointing members of the teaching staff.

A rearrangement of course studies has resulted in the formation of 19 teaching and research departments. As announced, they are: Anatomy, Prof. George B. Jenkins; bacteriology, Dean Earl Baldwin McKinley; biochemistry, Prof. Joseph H. Roe; pathology, Prof. Oscar Benwood Hunter; pharmacology, Prof. George B. Roth; medicine, Prof. Walter A. Bloodorn; dermatology and syphilology, Prof. Charles A. Simpson; pediatrics, Prof. Harry H. Donnelly; radiology, Prof. Arthur C. Christie; psychiatry, Prof. William Allen White; neurology, Prof. Walter Freeman; surgery, Prof. Charles Stanley White; oto-rhino-laryngology, Prof. William B. Mason; ophthalmology, Prof. William T. Davis, and urology, Prof. Francis R. Hagner. Appointment of the executive officers of the departments of physiology, obstetrics and gynecology, experimental medicine and hygiene and preventive medicine will be announced later.

Never parched, never toasted CAMELS are FRESH in nature's own mild way!

EVERYONE knows now that Camels are the fresh cigarette.

If inquiry went deeper, it would reveal that Camels are the natural moisture cigarette.

That's important, because in handling fine tobaccos, when you process out natural moisture, you sacrifice freshness and flavor too.

Camel smokers needn't worry about that, because Camels are blended of fine Turkish and mild Domestic tobaccos that are never subjected to violent processing. They need no parching or toasting to make them smooth, palatable, cool.

That's why the Camel Humidor Pack is such a boon to Camel smokers—it preserves the freshness, flavor, natural moisture, fragrance that are in this fine cigarette to start with.

Camels are fresh in nature's own mild way, and if you want to see what that means in unalloyed smoke-enjoyment, switch to them for just one day—then leave them, if you can!

Made FRESH—Kept FRESH

Don't remove the moisture-proof wrapping from your package of Camels after you open it. The Camel Humidor Pack is protection against perfume and powder odors, dust and germs. In offices and homes, even in the dry atmosphere of artificial heat, the Camel Humidor Pack delivers fresh Camels and keeps them right until the last one has been smoked.

THE SOCIETY

The coming weekend will be a trying one for dance devotees, for there are three important dances scheduled. On Thursday, November 19, there will be a football pep rally, when the University Band will make its first appearance. Immediately following this rally the Green Dragons are giving a rather unique dance in Corcoran Hall. On Friday night the Interfraternity Council is having another of its dollar dances. Saturday, November 21, Pi Beta Phi will give its annual charity dance. All three dances will be good ones, and it is going to be hard to choose.

Kappa Alpha entertained West Virginia members of their order with an excellent dance Saturday, November 14. Dagmoir furnished exceptionally peppy music.

Chi Omega announces the formal pledging of Helen Lawrence, instructor in Physical Education.

Sigma Kappa entertained its pledges with a Treasure Hunt and informal supper, ending at Sue Gibson's home in Manassas, Va., Sunday, November 8.

Sigma Nu Has Five New Brothers.

Sigma Nu announces the formal initiation of Joseph Johnson, Reginald Mykes, Grandison Allen, Selmer Johnson and Joseph Hornsby on Sunday, October 31.

Betty Rose attended the First Class Hop at the Naval Academy, Saturday, November 7.

Sigma Phi Epsilon announces the formal pledging of Floyd Rauls, Francis Taylor, Jay Jayne, Ty Hertler, Joe Vanderburg, William Wells, and Oscar Wickham.

Phi Chapter of Alpha Epsilon Iota entertained at tea on Sunday, November 8, at the home of Dr. Margaret Nicholson. Among the guests present were Mrs. Earl McKinley, Mrs. William Clive Borden, and Mrs. Oscar Hunter.

Pharmacy Prof Marries

On October 30 Myrtle Ann Wilson and Raymond Smith, Pharmacy professor, were married in Anacostia.

Phi Delta announces the pledging of Helen Nelson, Catherine Tranbarger, Catherine Wheeler, Miriam Pasma, and Elizabeth Brown, Sunday, November 8.

Shirley Graff attended the Phi Epsilon Pi house party at the University of Virginia this week-end.

The Mothers' Club of Pi Beta Phi held its regular meeting November 12 after a luncheon in the sorority rooms.

Pi Phi Pledges Hostesses

At Tea Tomorrow
The Pi Phi pledges are entertaining the pledges of the other sororities at a tea in the rooms tomorrow afternoon.

Jean Kirkwood, Irene Moore, Catherine Crane, Frances Stubbs, and Bob Maurer attended the Navy-Notre Dame game.

Acacia held a bridge party at the house Thursday evening.

WHO'S WHO ON THE CAMPUS

DANIEL C. BEATTIE

Dan Beattie has been identified with Troubadours ever since its formal organization as a producing company for musical comedies in 1927. He is one of the charter members, was assistant musical director in 1929-30, musical director in 1930-31, and is both managing director and musical director this year.

Beattie is also a charter member of the local chapter of Alpha Eta Epsilon, national dramatic fraternity, organized locally in 1931, and is serving as its president this year.

He has been a member of the George Washington University Glee Club for three years, singing with it when it won the intercollegiate national championship in 1930.

We are still singing the hits he composed for recent Troubadour shows. Do you remember "What Care I" from "Sometime Soon" in 1928; "Just A Kiss," "Must I Forget" and "I Always Get My Man" from "Gypsy in Egypt"; and "Makin' Love" and "How Do You Get That Way" from "Good Gracious Godfrey"? Dan wrote them. You'll hear more in "Happy Landings."

Furthermore, his repertoire of musical instruments includes piano, banjo, and accordion, and Dan has been a regular participant in the Troubadour programs over WOL every Monday at 7:30.

attended the Duke-North Carolina State game, and the dances.

Dr. A. Announces
Charity Dance

Omicron Delta Kappa announces a charity tea dance, Thursday 28.

Acacia announces the pledging of Everett Strandell and Fred Stevenson.

Delta Zeta pledges gave a tea on Sunday afternoon in the rooms.

Jean Kirkwood spent last week-end at Annapolis, and attended the ball game and hop.

Beatrice Mandell entertained last Monday in honor of Mrs. Reba Cohen of Charleston, W. Va., and the pledges of Alpha Epsilon Phi.

Harriet Atwell entertained Jane Jester of the U. of W. Va., over the week-end.

Phi Mu Pledges
Entertained

Amalie Walker entertained the actives and pledges of Phi Mu at a buffet supper at her aunt's home near Silver Spring Sunday.

Phi Sigma Kappa announces the formal initiation of Rollo Taylor, Phillip Merryman and Glenn Nixon, November 13.

Underclasses of the School of Pharmacy have recently elected officers for the coming year.

The Junior class on Monday, November 9, elected: B. Goldman, president; Kris Koutsoukos, vice president; M. Butler, secretary, and J. Edmondson, treasurer.

On Friday, November 6, members of the freshman class elected: Lamb, president; Emmert, vice president; Rubin, secretary, and Bray, treasurer.

Orchesis Announces
Program For Year

Original Initiation and Christmas Production Are Planned

Orchesis, the interpretative dance club of George Washington University plans for the coming year an original initiation composed solely of music and dancing. The Christmas production will be an interpretation of the Primitive Madonna and other Christmas dances. Orchesis hopes to collaborate with the Glee Club in giving this production.

In order to make this year more interesting the club will have Gertrude Prokosh and several other well-known dancers give recitals. Miss Prokosh may also work with the girls in the Christmas production.

Orchesis was formed from a natural dancing class in Physical Education last year. All the members of last year's club are urged to come out again this year.

Officers of the club are: Harriet Atwell, president; Betty Elfelt, vice president; Helen Chaffee, secretary, and Grace Haley, treasurer.

Students Organize
Appreciation Group

Members to See Painting Collection of Mrs. Garrell Next Week

To enable students to make contacts with the opportunities Washington offers in various art lore, is the purpose of the organization of an art appreciation group on Friday, November 6, at the Lambie House. The club is supervised by Miss Harriet Garrells, superintendent of art in the public schools, and Mrs. Caroline Benedict Carroll, lecturer on Archeology in the University.

The next meeting will take place Friday, December 4, at Miss Garrells' home in order to view her private collection of paintings. Election of officers and a discussion of the paintings and other objects of art will take place. Everyone interested in joining is invited to see Mrs. Barrows in her office and receive further information concerning the organization.

Chamberlain Design
Wins Second Place

Marks Fourth Year George Washington Entries Have Won Prizes

Beaux-Arts Institute of Design recently announced the awards in the annual program competition. Miss Muriel R. Chamberlain, representing George Washington University, was awarded the second prize of $10. The subject of the ball this year was "A Pageant of Old New York."

Other entries from George Washington were made by Betsy Garret, Miriam Mose, Virginia Paxton and Ben T. Simmons. The Fine Arts Department has placed in this competition in four consecutive years. In 1929 Donald Kline, now an instructor in the Art School, won first prize of $100, in the following year Mr. Kline won second prize, and last year Ben Simmons was awarded second place.

While all this was happening in New York City a competition has been in progress within G. W. walls. The monthly Fine Arts judgment was made last Saturday. This included all work in the Department, illustration, antique, water color and sketching.

The traveling exhibit for the Scarab chapters has been arranged, and will start on its journey this week. The exhibit has been made up by members of the fraternity under the direction of Professor Crandall. Judgment will be rendered within the next few weeks.

Marvin Announces
Change In Faculty
Of Medical School

Changes Made as Initial Step in Development of Greater Medical School

The appointment of a new medical faculty on November 5 marked the first step in the reorganization of the George Washington University School of Medicine which, it is expected, will result in the establishment in Washington of a leading medical center. Announcement of the initial moves toward the University's greater development in the medical field was made by President Cloyd Heck Marvin following the November meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The new faculty is created within the present teaching staff of the school and is composed of the president of the University, the dean and emeritus professors of the School of Medicine, and the heads of the teaching and research departments. This faculty will formulate the academic policies of the school, and the plans for the development of its various branches of teaching and research. It also will carry the responsibility of appointing members of the teaching staff.

A rearrangement of course studies has resulted in the formation of 19 teaching and research departments. As announced, they are: Anatomy, Prof. George B. Jenkins; bacteriology, Dean Earl Baldwin McKinley; biochemistry, Prof. Joseph H. Roe; pathology, Prof. Oscar Benwood Hunter; pharmacology, Prof. George B. Roth; medicine, Prof. Walter A. Bloedorn; dermatology and syphilology, Prof. Charles A. Simpson; pediatrics, Prof. Harry H. Donnelly; radiology, Prof. Arthur C. Christie; psychiatry, Prof. William Allen White; neurology, Prof. Walter Freeman; surgery, Prof. Charles Stanley White; oto-rhino-laryngology, Prof. William B. Mason; ophthalmology, Prof. William T. Davis, and urology, Prof. Francis R. Hagner. Appointment of the executive officers of the departments of physiology, obstetrics and gynecology, experimental medicine and hygiene and preventive medicine will be announced later.

in nature's own mild way!

EVERYONE knows now that Camels are the fresh cigarette.

If inquiry went deeper, it would reveal that Camels are the natural moisture cigarette.

That's important, because in handling fine tobaccos, when you process out natural moisture, you sacrifice freshness and flavor too.

Camel smokers needn't worry about that, because Camels are blended of fine Turkish and mild Domestic tobaccos that are never subjected to violent processing. They need no parching or toasting to make them smooth, palatable, cool.

That's why the Camel Humidor Pack is such a boon to Camel smokers—it preserves the freshness, flavor, natural moisture, fragrance that are in this fine cigarette to start with.

Camels are fresh in nature's own mild way, and if you want to see what that means in unalloyed smoke-enjoyment, switch to them for just one day—then leave them, if you can!

"They keep tasting better and better to me!"

Every Chesterfield is like every other one. No matter how many you smoke, the last Chesterfield of the day is just as smooth and sweet—as cool and comfortable—as the first. They're milder, too! Chesterfield uses only mild, ripe, sweet tobaccos—the smoothest and ripest that grow.

Notice, too, how white and fine the paper is. It's the purest that money can buy.

All this care...to make Chesterfields taste better—to make them milder. And millions of Chesterfield smokers say it in their own way—"They Satisfy!"
